

2006 Youth Leadership & Advocacy Summit

"When adults think of students, they think of them as potential beneficiaries of change...

They rarely think of students as participants in a process of school change and organizational life."

—Michael Fullan

Your Hosts:
Michigan Office of the
Surgeon General
Lakeview School District

Saturday, October 28, 2006
Lakeview High School
Battle Creek, Michigan

Take Action! Be a part of the first-ever Michigan Steps Up Youth Leadership & Advocacy Summit, an exciting opportunity for your school district to participate in a statewide movement to create healthier schools and healthier communities.

Take Action!

- Share ideas and network with students from across the state
- Learn about current health issues, programs that address these issues as well as leadership and advocacy skills from prominent healthcare experts
- Complete an action plan to address issues in your school and community
- Levy state and national resources to support your action plan
- Enjoy a day of good healthy fun ending with an optional overnight lock-in at the Full Blast Entertainment Center

Guest Presenters

Dr. Kimberlydawn Wisdom
Michigan Surgeon General

Dr. Ronald Davis
President-Elect, American Medical Association

Dr. David Katz
Director, Yale Prevention Research Center
ABC News and O, The Oprah Magazine Contributor

Call (269) 565-2415 or email wpell@bc-lakeview.k12.mi.us today to find out how you can empower students in your district to become advocates for social change and healthy lifestyles! Registration materials will soon be available at www.michiganstepsup.org.

A $50 team registration fee will provide four students (grades 9-12) and one adult: Saturday lunch, dinner, snacks; admission to the evening activity at Full Blast; T-shirts and all Summit materials.

No State of Michigan funds were used to produce this flyer.

